Independent Auditor's Report

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders
Fourth Street Financial Group, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Fourth Street Financial Group, Inc. as of December 31, 2007. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the statement of financial condition based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial condition. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Fourth Street Financial Group, Inc. as of December 31, 2007, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

FOURTH STREET FINANCIAL GROUP, INC.

Notes to Statement of Financial Condition

December 31, 2007

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

Description of business

Fourth Street Financial Group, Inc. is an Ohio corporation operating as a securities broker and dealer in Cincinnati, Ohio. The Company does not carry securities accounts for customers, perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, or clear customer transactions. The Company also provides management and other services to Fourth Street Financial Advisors, Inc. and Alpha Investment Management, registered investment advisors, and Fourth Street Financial Agency, Inc., an insurance agency (See Note 4 for more details).

Furniture, equipment and improvements

Furniture, equipment and improvements are stated at cost and are being depreciated over estimated useful lives of five to seven years using accelerated methods.

Income taxes

The Company, with the consent of its stockholders, has elected to be taxed as an S corporation. The stockholders are personally liable for their proportionate share of the Company's taxable income (loss). Therefore, no provision or liability for federal and state income taxes is reflected in this financial statement.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

2. Leases

For the first half of the year, the Company leased its office space from one of its stockholders. The Company paid rent of $1,000 per month during this period.

The Company relocated during the year and entered into a month-to-month sub-lease agreement with Alpha Investments, Inc., a company with a common officer and shareholder. The Company pays $1,000 per month to Alpha Investments, Inc.

3. Retirement Plan:

The Company has a simplified employee pension-individual retirement account (SEP-IRA) plan covering substantially all employees.

4. Related Party Transactions:

The Company shares offices and employees with Fourth Street Financial Agency, Inc. and Alpha Investments, Inc., companies with common officers and stockholders and receives management fees from these companies.

5. Net Capital Requirements:

Pursuant to the net capital provision of rule 15c3-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Company is required to maintain minimum net capital, as defined under such provisions. Net capital and the related net capital ratio may fluctuate on a daily basis. As of December 31, 2007, the Company's net capital requirement was $5,000, and its defined net capital and aggregate indebtedness to net capital ratio was $57,741 and .0686 to 1, respectively.
